PROJECTS

SoundLog | React.js, Zustand, Tailwind, Daisy UI, MongoDB, Express.js, Node.js, Git

Link

- Designed & developed a full-stack MERN music reviewing, and rating platform.
- Developed a RESTful backend with Node.js & Express, handling secure API requests with JWT-based authentication.
- Integrated MongoDB for user data, music logs, and review storage, while leveraging the Spotify API for music-relevant data.
- Deployed the frontend on Vercel and backend on Render (achieving only a 40-second cold start).
- Integrated Cloudinary for profile picture uploads.
- Optimized a fully responsive UX/UI with Tailwind CSS, Zustand for state management, and Daisy UI components.

Readily | React.js, Redux, MongoDB, Node.js, JavaScript, Tailwind, Git

- Full-stack bookstore application showcasing dynamic book management and user interaction.
- Built using React for a highly responsive and dynamic user interface.
- Integrated Google Books API to fetch real-time book data and enhance the bookstore's search and discovery experience.
- Redux implemented for efficient state management, ensuring seamless data flow across components.
- Backend powered by Node.js and MongoDB, enabling seamless CRUD via RESTful APIs with Google Auth 2.0 for external authentication.

Portfolio Website | NextJS, Tailwind, TypeScript, CSS, Git

Link

- Modular structure leveraging reusable components for streamlined development and maintenance.
- Utilizes SWR (stale-while-revalidate) for efficient data fetching, leveraging the Last.fm API to fetch my logged music data.
- Renders dynamic content using MDX bundled with JSX for an efficient and optimized web page.
- Developed with Next.js and hosted on Vercel, ensuring fast performance and easy deployment for a smooth user experience.
